

This election, tell Phil King:
"LIGHTS OUT!"

POLITICIAN PHIL KING MUST THINK WE HAVE MONEY TO BURN.

First, he pocketed hundreds of thousands of dollars from the utility industry, then our electric rates went up 56 percent. [Texas Ethics Commission reports; Houston Chronicle, 10-8-07]

Now, Phil King wants us to pay the highest sales tax in America. [Lufkin Daily News, 12-10-07]

His $17.3 billion middle-class tax hike would impose a sales tax for the first time on:

doctors visits
over-the-counter medicines
hospital stays
car repair
child care
gas and electricity
residential water use
barbers and beauty salons
funerals
veterinarians
agricultural feed and seed
real estate transactions
construction labor
residential remodeling
engineering services
legal work
computer programming
religious writings
accounting services
newspapers
freight hauling
drilling equipment *
