Dear President Hussey,

It gives me great pleasure to recommend _____ for transfer admission to the Dwight College of Engineering at Texas A&M University. Driven by an admiration for the engineers in his family, it's _____ dream to follow in the footsteps of his father and older brother.

Currently, _____ is a sophomore at the University of _____. His passion for petroleum engineering has led him to research the production of hydrocarbons. Further, in an effort to build upon his knowledge and experience, _____ has worked with several companies involved in the production of petroleum.

_____ is an exemplary young adult, intent on pursuing a career in petroleum engineering. I firmly believe the Dwight College of Engineering provides the ideal program to cultivate such talent. If given the opportunity, I'm certain you will be as impressed with him as I am. Your careful consideration of his transfer application is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Eddie Lucio, Jr.

Dear Admissions Committee,

I would like to recommend _____ for admissions into The Bush School of Government and Public Service Master's Program in International Affairs for the 2014 Fall Semester. As a Texas A&M _____ with a 3.7 GPA, _____ is loyal to her school, committed to her academics and is active on and off campus.

_____ is a bright student with a keen interest in public service. She has served in numerous and various diplomatic capacities throughout her young adult life. She has very high personal standards of integrity, loyalty and follow-through. Once she begins a project, she sees it through to its successful conclusion.

As a high school student, _____ was chosen to serve as an Ambassador for _____ as _____ County Fair Duchess. As part of her commitment, she traveled throughout Texas to encourage tourism and relationships with other towns and cities. _____ was an excellent 'Good Will Ambassador' and diplomat for her home town of _____. She was also a State Team Tennis qualifier for _____ High School for three years, and a two year qualifier in the University Interscholastic League (UIL) Feature Writing competition. She is a well-rounded individual and managed all these activities while maintaining an almost perfect GPA throughout high school. As an obvious achiever, and with an interest in government, _____ was also chosen to attend Texas American Legion Girls State after her junior year in high school. An experience that she says, "broadened my vision of Texas and made me a lifetime voter."

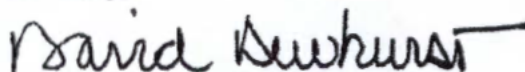

She spent last summer in _____ working and practicing her chosen second language, Spanish, and she will be spending a semester studying abroad this summer in _____. She is a motivated and a motivating person. This young woman is on a projectory to success.

is energized by challenges and chooses to work toward solutions, rather than be daunted by real or imagined problems. Her approach to life, as well as work, is both positive and practical. She is a mature and natural leader and is able to bring a large group of individuals together to work toward a common goal- in whatever arena she finds herself. She is a high academic achiever, has many interests and manages her time well. Hope has a lot of energy and is able to 'spin many plates' while maintaining a peaceful demeanor.

I believe that scholastic background and community service provide her a solid foundation for entering The Bush School of Government and Public Service Master's Program in International Affairs. Thank you for considering for admission into your program.

Re: Application ID:

Dear President Loftin,

Please allow me to request your favorable consideration of Miss _____ as she applies for admittance to Texas A&M University as a freshman.

I have been a lifelong friend of Miss _____ family and have known her since she was a baby. She is a principled and astute young woman, as well as a dedicated student. She has been admitted into some great schools, but has her heart set on A&M. She attends _____ gaining a strong academic foundation while being fully involved in all aspects of student and community life. _____ has been a member of the varsity softball team all four years and serves as Captain of the varsity cheer team. She is a member of many school clubs and is a very active local volunteer, all evidence of her interest and ability to balance the many commitments facing young people today.

_____ is extremely excited about the prospect of attending her top college choice, Texas A&M. I am certain she would make a valuable addition to the student body and be a positive influence on your excellent school. In addition to her scholastic achievements, _____ exemplifies the strength of character so vital in today's world. Her high standards, loyalty, dedication, and interest in public service are daily reminders of that strong character. _____ positive demeanor and determination will undoubtedly lead to success in your school and her future.

I know that A&M is enjoying a surge in applications with many qualified students hoping for admission. You wouldn't be remiss in favorably considering Miss _____ for the next freshman class. In short, I cannot imagine a more qualified young person for admission.

Re: , Application ID:

Dear President Loftin,

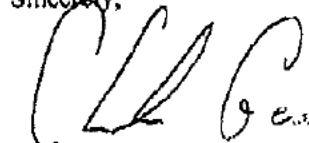

Please allow me to request your favorable consideration of Miss _____ as she applies for admittance to Texas A&M University as a freshman.

I have been a lifelong friend of Miss _____ family and have known her since she was a baby. She is a principled and astute young woman, a dedicated student, and comes from a big Aggie family. She attends _____ gaining a strong academic foundation while being fully involved in all aspects of student and community life. _____ has been a cheerleader all four years and serves as Captain of the varsity tennis team. She is a member of many school clubs, including two which she founded, and is a very active local volunteer, all evidence of her interest and ability to balance the many commitments facing young people today.

_____ is extremely excited about the prospect of attending her top college choice, Texas A&M. I am certain she would make a valuable addition to the student body and be a positive influence on your excellent school. In addition to her scholastic achievements, _____ exemplifies the strength of character so vital in today's world. Her high standards, loyalty, dedication, and interest in public service are daily reminders of that strong character. _____ positive demeanor and determination will undoubtedly lead to success in your school and her future.

I know that A&M is enjoying a surge in applications with many qualified students hoping for admission. You wouldn't be remiss in favorably considering Miss _____ for the next freshman class. In short, I cannot imagine a more qualified young person for admission. If I can be of assistance or provide more information, please don't hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

Charlie Geren

Dear Scott,

I hope that this letter finds you well and I thank you for all that the university, of which my daughter is an alumnus, is doing to ensure Texas is at the forefront of higher education. I am writing to encourage your consideration of a fine young woman named [redacted] for admission to Texas A&M University. As you will find in the enclosed documentation, [redacted] is a gifted young individual who wishes to achieve her education dreams and career objectives with Texas A&M as her launch pad in life.

[redacted] trails from close family friends of mine. Over the years, I have seen her develop into a curious, studious, dedicated student and community devotee. Per the enclosed resume, she possesses impressive academic and athletic attributes that will undoubtedly yield solid results throughout her college experience. She epitomizes the type of person who has the integrity and ethic to be a great Aggie. It is a compliment to your university to have young people, like [redacted], possess such a strong desire to attend Texas A&M.

If you wish to discuss [redacted] background or prospects further, please do not hesitate to contact me at my Capitol office at 512-463-0325. Thank you for your consideration.

Dear Dr. Loftin,

I recommend _____ for admission to the Texas A&M University Class of 2012. _____ is a recent Aggie graduate and both girls come from a long line of TAMU graduates. I know her family would love nothing more than to add another proud Aggie to their family.

_____ hopes to pursue a degree in the College of Education specializing in either Human Resource Development or Technology Management. She is a hardworking, self-motivated, and passionate student with a 3.0 GPA. _____ also participates in extra-curricular activities as the Captain of her cheerleading squad. Besides her academic and extra-curricular activities _____ has managed to work a part-time job while attending high school and community college. She currently has 48 hours of Community college, 9 from _____ Community College and 39 hours from _____ Community College. She has proven to be a responsible individual while working as an office manager in a driver's education school. There _____ was responsible for paying the establishments bills, taking care of their payroll, managing students and classes, answering phone calls and emails, as well as participating on their web design. Working while going to school has helped _____ hone her natural organizational skills and learn the importance of not only working on multiple tasks simultaneously but completing those tasks well.

She has spent a great deal of time on the TAMU campus and has realized her family's special bond with Aggieland. Attending Texas A&M University is not only a dream for _____ family, but a dream for herself. I know that she will flourish on your campus, not only academically, but socially with the various leadership roles she is sure to have the opportunity to pursue.

Re: Recommendation for Apply Texas Number-

Dear President Loftin:

I'm writing on behalf of who has applied for admission to Texas A&M University in College Station. My understanding is that her application is currently under review. Previously, I submitted a written letter of recommendation on behalf; however, I wanted to personally let you know how much I support her efforts to join the Aggie family.

 desires to attend the University not only to obtain her degree from Texas A&M but to join her sister, who is currently a there with a 3.6 GPA. I am confident that will excel academically and obtain high marks like her sister. In fact, parents recently informed me that her SAT score and high school class rank were indeed higher at her high school than those of her sister, is a bright student and would be a great addition to Texas A&M. Please give full consideration to application. If you have any questions, you may reach me at my District Office (806-374-8787). Dear President Loftin:

I am writing to extend my wholehearted support and recommendation for the admission of _____ to Texas A&M University. Armed with a passion for learning, I believe that _____ exemplifies the values and skills a Texas A&M student should possess. He has had significant educational success as indicated by his grades and extracurricular activities.

As _____ resume shows, he has a strong will to conquer any task set before him. However, once meeting him, you quickly realize he has much more to offer than what a resume can indicate. His countless hours of volunteer work and dedication to his family and community only show a portion of his compassion and capabilities. His drive to better himself, as well as society as a whole, is admirable in such a young man.

I feel strongly that a young man like _____ deserves a fine education and having gotten to know him, I know he belongs at the Texas A&M University. I have no doubt that _____ will be a success and an asset to a prestigious institution like Texas A&M University.

Your careful consideration of his application is appreciated. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you may have any questions.
