

Likely Voter Screens	Vote for Prop. 6	Vote against Prop. 6	Don't intend to vote	No opinion	Number of respondents	MOE (+/-)
All Voters	52%	19%	5%	24%	800	3.46%
Vote in every election	61%	25%	0%	14%	262	6.05%
Vote in every, or almost every election	59%	23%	1%	17%	543	4.21%
Extremely interested in politics	65%	21%	1%	14%	374	5.07%
Extremely, or somewhat interested in politics	55%	20%	5%	20%	708	3.68%
Followed Legislature extremely closely	68%	27%	0%	6%	142	8.22%
Followed Legislature extremely, or somewhat closely	62%	23%	1%	15%	508	4.35%
Have heard a lot about the constitutional amendment elections	62%	30%	0%	8%	74	11.39%
Have heard a lot, or some about the constitutional amendment elections	59%	22%	2%	16%	419	4.79%
Vote in every election AND Extremely interested in politics	67%	21%	0%	12%	201	6.91%
Vote in every election AND Extremely, or somewhat interested in politics	62%	24%	0%	14%	260	6.08%
Vote in every, or almost every election AND Extremely, or somewhat interested in politics	60%	23%	1%	17%	526	4.27%
Vote in every election AND Followed Legislature extremely closely	67%	28%	0%	6%	90	10.33%
Vote in every election AND Followed Legislature extremely, or somewhat closely	62%	25%	0%	12%	229	6.48%
Vote in every, or almost every election AND Followed Legislature extremely, or somewhat closely	63%	24%	1%	13%	430	4.73%
Vote in every election AND Have heard a lot about the constitutional amendment elections	67%	27%	0%	7%	58	12.87%
Vote in every election AND Have heard a lot, or some about the constitutional amendment elections	65%	25%	0%	10%	186	7.19%
Vote in every, or almost every election AND Have heard a lot, or some about the constitutional amendment elections	63%	24%	1%	13%	336	5.35%
Vote in every election AND Extremely interested in politics AND Followed Legislature extremely closely AND Have heard a lot about the constitutional elections	76%	18%	0%	6%	44	14.77%

Turnout as a Percentage of Voting-Age Population in Five Types of Texas Elections and Presidential Elections Nationwide, 1970-2012

