

Texas Weekly's Hot List

The most competitive races in the Texas Primaries

We lifted the color scheme from the inventors of the federal terror watch, ranking districts by the threat to each incumbent, to the incumbent party, or just by the level of interest in and heat generated by a particular race, then assigning each group a garish color. Yellow means there's trouble on the sidewalk. Orange is trouble on the front porch. Red is trouble walking in the door. Incumbents' names are in bold. Open seats are rated by the apparent margin between top candidates (closer is hotter). This is certainly and intentionally subject to argument, and we'll revise and adjust each week through the May 29 primary. Let us know what you think.

Changes this week: Raised CD-16, CD-3, CD-4, HD-2, HD-85. Lowered CD-6, CD-30, HD-5, and HD-77.
