

Learn about the real Joan Huffman at www.JoanHuffman.com

As a candidate for State Senate, Joan Huffman has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars from gambling, liquor and nightclub special interests.

In fact, she received a single $100,000 contribution from Herbert Graham known as “the Godfather of para-mutual horse racing (gambling) in Texas.”

Together with her husband, Joan has committed over $1 million to market herself as a conservative, hard working, tough on crime former district judge.

The record doesn't back-up her claims.

Joan and her husband reported making $22 million annually from their multi-state nightclub operation. The real question is how much will they commit to buy this election? And is the sky the limit for their friends in the liquor, gambling and nightclub business? How much are these special interests (who are regulated by state government) willing to spend to have a Texas Senator in their back pocket?

Just remember, every time you receive a mail piece, hear a radio ad or see a television ad from Joan Huffman...those were brought to you by the special interests in liquor, gambling and night club operations.

We at Best for Texas will get the truth out about the real Joan Huffman. The facts are well documented and available on www.JoanHuffman.com

Each year Judge Joan Huffman was on the bench, she took an average of 78 days of paid vacation.

That's an average of four months off each and every year.

Do you get that much time off your job?

More than half of that time, Harris County had to hire a visiting judge to handle the back log of cases in her court.

So while she was off on vacation, taxpayers paid another judge to do the work she was elected to do.

To make matters worse, when 78 days off a year wasn't enough, she just up and quit in the middle of her term. Her actions forced the Governor to appoint a replacement and forced Harris County to call a special election.

Now she wants to be your next State Senator.

Joan Huffman...hard working?

Hardly not!
